Spousal Consent

Community or marital property state laws may require spousal consent for a nonspouse beneficiary designation. The laws of the state in which the financial organization is domiciled, the IRA owner resides, the trust is located, the spouse resides, or this transaction is consummated should be reviewed to determine if such a requirement exists. Spousal consent for the beneficiary designation may also be required by financial organization policy.

(IRA Owner Initials) I Am Married. I understand that if I designate a primary beneficiary other than my spouse, my spouse must consent by signing below.

(IRA Owner Initials) I Am Not Married. I understand that if I marry in the future, I must complete a new Designation of Beneficiary form, which includes the spousal consent documentation.

I am the spouse of the IRA owner. Because of the significant consequences associated with giving up my interest in the IRA, the custodian/trustee has not provided me with legal or tax advice, but has advised me to seek tax or legal advice. I acknowledge that I have received a fair and reasonable disclosure of the IRA owner's assets or property, including any financial obligations for a community property state. In the event I have a legal interest in the IRA assets, I hereby give to the IRA owner such interest in the assets held in this IRA and consent to the beneficiary designation set forth in this Application.

Signatures

I certify that the information provided by me on this Application is accurate, and that I have received a copy of the Application, IRS Form 5305, Traditional Individual Retirement Trust Account or IRS Form 5305-A, Traditional Individual Retirement Custodial Account, Disclosure Statement, and Financial Disclosure. I agree to be bound by the terms and conditions found in the Agreement, Disclosure Statement, Financial Disclosure, and amendments thereto. I assume sole responsibility for all consequences relating to my actions concerning this IRA. I understand that I may revoke this IRA on or before seven (7) days after the date of the date of establishment. My designation of the tax year for my contribution, and any election to treat a contribution as a rollover or recharacterization, is irrevocable. Except as otherwise provided by law, I understand that the custodian/trustee cannot provide, and has not provided, me with tax or legal advice. I have been advised to seek the guidance of a tax or legal professional.

Additional Information

Purpose. The Traditional IRA Application form is designed to assist you in opening a traditional individual retirement account (IRA). This Application will accompany an Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form 5305, Traditional Individual Retirement Trust Account, IRS Form 5305-A, Traditional Individual Retirement Custodial Account, or IRS-approved prototype, Disclosure Statement, and Financial Disclosure.

Additional Documents. Applicable law or policies of the IRA custodian/trustee may require additional documentation, such as IRS Form W-9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification. For a recharacterization, the IRS requires you to provide a written notice of recharacterization.

For Additional Guidance. It is in your best interest to seek the guidance of a tax or legal professional before completing this document. For more information, refer to IRS Publication 590-A, Contributions to Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), IRS Publication 590-B, Distributions from Individual Retirement Arrangements (IRAs), IRS Form 5498, IRA Contribution Information, instructions to your federal income tax return, or the IRS's web site at www.irs.gov.

Terms. A general understanding of the following terms may be helpful in completing your transactions.

Custodian. An IRA custodian must be a bank or savings and loan association, as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 408(n), or any person who has the approval of the IRS to act as custodian.

Deposit Investments Only. The deposit investments provided by the custodian/trustee may include savings, share, and/or money market accounts, and certificates of deposit (CDs), and will earn a reasonable rate.

Managed Trust. If the IRA is managed by the custodian/trustee, the custodian/trustee will provide you with a managed trust or agency agreement, or other similar document, that sets forth the terms and conditions governing the investment relationship.

Self-Directed IRA Investment. If your IRA is self-directed, you may invest your contributions and IRA assets in various deposit and nondeposit investments.

Trustee. An IRA trustee must be a bank or savings and loan association, as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 408(n), or any person who has the approval of the IRS to act as trustee.
